

WESTERLY

The annual Rhode Island state convention of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held Thursday afternoon at the Calvary Baptist church on Elm street, and delegates were present from each of the 14 chapters of the organization in the state.

State Regent Mrs. Samuel H. Davis presided, and all of the other state officers were present.

The visiting delegations began arriving in Westerly during the morning, and at noon, dinner was served by Phoebe Greene Ward chapter of this town, to 125 guests at the Calvary Baptist church vestry.

The exercises began at 2 o'clock, and the members of the organization marched into the church auditorium in the following order: Miss Virginia Davis, the daughter of the state regent, carrying the American flag; Miss Elizabeth Maxson and Miss Augusta Stanton, Girls Scouts, carrying the state flag; the state officers, and remaining members.

The officers were escorted to the platform by a committee composed of Mrs. W. M. Brown, Miss Sylvia Lapham, Miss Mary Whipple, Miss Marion Kenyon and Miss Louise Blaisdell.

The hall was tastefully decorated for the occasion, and the program opened with the salute to the flag.

The principal speaker of the meeting was Benjamin F. Marshall of the Connecticut College for Women in New London, and the subject of his address was "The American Spirit—The Past and the Future."

Another noted speaker was Mrs. Charles Whitman, wife of the former governor of New York state, and vice president general of New York.

A fierce brawl between two wagon drivers of rival ice companies created considerable excitement on Congress street Thursday morning.

It was said that the fight started following an argument over the traffic rules. One of the combatants was twice knocked to the ground, and both received hard blows.

An outsider who stepped in to separate the men, also received a blow under the left eye that cut his face open, and following this accident the scuffle ended.

The argument was called off, the men shook hands, and no arrests were made.

Town Clerk Everett E. Whipple announced Thursday that in date only about one-half of the voters of Westerly had registered for the coming fall election.

In addition to the town council, a representative for the first district to take the place of the late Joseph T. Murphy will be elected this November.

The period for registering closes on June 26, so the clock now ticks for the prospective voters to register.

The women must register the same as the men, even though they did register last year. All women property holders will not have to register, but they should make sure that their names are on the voting list.

The personnel of the Watch Hill post office for the coming season has been announced, and in addition to Superintendent Edmund York, the following clerks will be there: William McGraith, Edward Portelli and Angelo Zerbini.

James A. Keene and Joseph Murray will be the carriers, and a motorcycle will be available for the delivery of parcel post.

In a baseball game played at Vose park Thursday afternoon, the grammar school nine defeated the Vose team by the score of 13 to 11.

You must pay your body to overcome—

Weakness—
Anaemia—
Nervousness—
Run-down vitality

A frequent cause of exhausted vitality is a real shortage in the body of several mineral elements, particularly Iron, Calcium, Potassium, Sodium and Phosphorus.

enables you to pay your body to create vital energy by restoring to the body mineral elements which have been used up in the expenditure of energy. And by restoring these mineral elements, the body is enabled to create new vital power—to make the blood rich and red—to strengthen the nerves—and to promote vigor and vitality. Try Wincarns for yourself. The result will surprise you.
